Excerpt: . . . most respectable Southern journals, with the names of the advertisers, many of them prominent citizens, and sometimes respectable ladies! One case, on page 15 of Mr. Welds book, is doubtless a specimen of tens, if not hundreds of thousands; assuredly it does not come under the condemnation of being unusual. The owner of a female slave, who was a Methodist, proposed a criminal intercourse with her: she refused. He sent her to the overseer to be flogged. Again he made advances--again she refused, and again she was flogged! Afterwards she yielded to his adulterous wishes! And now, the attentive reader of the preceding pages will have learned that all this was strictly within the protection of the law! Its limitations this monster had not overstepped. At least, there is no adequate law for his punishment--nay, so far as appears, there have been no legislative...
