This collection was made under the far-sighted sponsoring of Herbert Hoover, who has made the gift to his Alma Mater. The work of collecting and compiling is under the supervision of Professor E. D. Adams, who has recent GAZETA LWOWSKA Fraaamanla uaialarawa: ly returned from an eight months sojourn in Europe, where he secured the books, pamphlets, and souvenirs listed below. The collection consists of books, pamphlets, newspapers, and manuscript material bearing especially on the political, social and economic aspects of the war. Little effort was made to. gather purely military material, since this will naturally be the work of the governments at war. In general the collection now rapidly coming in to the Library at Stanford University is in six (6) main classifications: (1) Delegation propaganda and claims presented to the Peace Conference. (2) Government Documents for the period 1914-1919, of every kind and type whether apparently bearing on the war or not, were secured from fortyseven (47) European, American, and Asiatic Governments.
