It is rather in the nature of a memorial record of the congregation and its membership as a whole, and its one hundredth anniversary. A memorial is as old as the Exodus. When Joshua discomfited Amalak, The Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book. The object was for rehearsal, information and preservation. This injunction has come down to us in custom through the generations since. Our history chronicles many persons, events, places and things worthy of peculiar honor and preservation. Duty leads us to perpetuate these in concrete form. Our object has been to give some of the principal events and characteristics of the work of the Church, and of a number of its members...
