So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. Luke 11:9-10 Can you imagine that you can pray without any doubts and all your prayers come true? You are just like God - you create the reality in which you live with your strongest thoughts and emotions. The Lord Himself gave you this power as a gift meant to assure your happiness. There are no accidents in your life; everything you believe and focus on becomes alive. This truth is the same whether you nourish positive or negative thoughts. If you believe in love and wealth, you will always experience harmony and prosperity. The purpose of this book is to help you become aware of your creative potential in order to harness the infinite abundance of the universe. As soon as you learn how to focus your mental energies, profusion will become your only natural state. You will be instructed in the eight essential steps for developing a correct attitude to prayer. When you take into account all these steps, your prayers will be fulfilled. Most of the time the answer to prayer is not an object but an opportunity that helps you to express your creative potential. Deeds can never be separated from prayers - the opportunities created by prayers are only helpful if you follow them with direct action. Positive karma is an important requirement for successful prayer. You will be introduced to the best practical methods for improving your karma in order to assure the accomplishment of your actions and prayers. Accordingly, this entire book is...
