Women In Indian Politics

By Niroj Sinha

2000. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 302 Recent years have witnessed a concern at the marginal presence of women in Politics. The concern has been voiced through international forums on the one hand and national and local level women groups and academics on the other. The involvement of women in politics is now regarded as an important factor for a healthy democracy. No democracy can be termed as healthy, if half of the population does not participate in the political process. It is also being increasingly realized that participation as mere voters is not enough. It has to be followed by large scale participation in the policy-formulation and decision making process. This book is an attempt at analyzing the problems related to women's political participation in the Indian context. Gender and patriarchy have been used as the conceptual framework. The environmental factors-socio-economic, political and cultural-are in some way or the other, directly related to the norms of gender and patriarchy. About The Author:- Dr. Niroj Sinha, presently Principal of M.M. College, Patna University. She has been engaged in women studies since 1981 and has undertaken research on various aspects of women's life. She has completed two projects, funded by Union...
