There are church buildings on every corner in most towns in America these days, yet the Christian influence on society and the popular culture continues to diminish. Parishioners float from church to church looking for more than a hallelujah and a handshake. And the world asks, Why Jesus? In this book Howard Peace outlines a vision of building lasting, life-giving relationships based on the Hebrew names of the Cities of Refuge, found in Joshua 20. Rather than a quick growth template, the author offers a vision for building new wineskins to hold His outpouring on the Church at the end of the age.
