The impression given is, in truth, that the calamity was of such intensity and magnitude as to have been really unmanageable. While for example the daily burials by the Police at Agra are reported to average nearly 400, numerous observers draw attention to the profusion of bodies near the River, and along the Roads. I annex below a General Order which gives a painful stamp of reality to like descriptions from Cawnpore, and in the Appendix will be found details from Futtighur confirming the same mournful conclusions. The Official Reports of Settlement Officers abound with references to the devastation and waste of life of which they had incontestable proofs in the course of their duties in the interiors of Districts. Of Etawah Mr. Martin Gubbins writes in 1841-- That the population has been very sensibly reduced by death is abundantly evident from the still deserted...
