Cynthia Farrell just celebrated her 58th birthday - a number no one believes because looking at her you might guess 38 and still think that is too old. Every time someone looks at her in shock when they find out how old she is and comment you're kidding, right? Her reply is always the same: if I was going to lie about my age, I would pick a better number. By all standards she enjoys a life most women her age and race never know, Senior Partner and Consultant at one of the big 6 consulting conglomerates and the only African American at that level. Married Arthur Farrell - the man she fell in love with at age 15 -- or what passes for love at 15 - when she was 21 and newly graduated from Princeton University. Thirty-seven years later, she and Arthur, now an attorney and Chief Prosecutor for the State of New Jersey are surrounded by two healthy and smart daughters, caring and influential friends and beautiful furnishings in their stately Victorian home in Madison, New Jersey. Truly a life even Cinderella, after marrying the Prince, would envy. Or would she? Just when you think tomorrow will be like all of the days before, someone appears to change that and you forever. OUT OF LOVE allows a peek inside the many closely guarded secrets of a woman at a crossroad, where the fantasy of love and desire challenges the reality of love and desire.
